King Charles III

Charles III is the first king with a university degree, can fly jets and helicopters, plays piano, cello and trumpet, and is a best-selling children's author. He's also been a pioneer in the campaign against climate change, founded 18 charities and, among his many jobs, is the 'Keeper of the Cows'! His life so far has been one of highs, lows, challenges and triumphs. It's the story of a modern man who is now the head of an ancient institution and set to claim a unique place in British history. To find out how and why, and more besides, read on...

Gandhi

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi was a shy small boy with average school grades who grew up to be one of the most influential people in the history of the world. But did you know that he was married at 13? Or that he was educated in Victorian London and jailed for a total of six years? Gandhi's life was packed full of surprises and remained unpredictable to the very end.
